

List of Acceptable Electronic Items for Recycling

Answering Machines	Hard Drives	Stereo Components
* Batteries:	Keyboards/Mice	Stereos
Lead Acid Batteries	Household Electronics	Tape Players
Nickel Cadmium Batteries	Ink/Toner	Telephones
Lithium Ion Batteries	Lab Equipment	Telecom Equipment
Cables/Wire	Laptops	Testing Equipment
Camcorders	Laptop Batteries	Toasters
CDs/DVDs	Mainframe Equipment	Transparency Makers
Cell Phones	Microwave Ovens	Two-Way Radios
CD Players	Modems	UPS –Power Supplies
Computer Equipment	Flat Panel Monitors	VCRs
Computers	Networking Equipment	Word Processors
Copiers	Pagers	Scrap Metals
Cords	PDA's
Duplicators	Printers	*Batteries that we are not able to recycle: Household alkaline AA, AAA, C, D and 9 volt.
DVD Players	Printed Circuit Boards
Electronic Typewriters	Other Electronics
Electronic Games	Remote Controls
Fax Machines	Scanners

We no longer accept CRT Televisions or Monitors (non-flat panels) for recycling

Due to changes in Pennsylvania's electronic recycling laws enacted as of January 23, 2013.

Impact Thrift re-cycles our metals and electronics through 611 Metals Recycling

611 Metals Recycling, LLC
www.611Metals.com

All materials are recycled in accordance with EPA regulations.
Data is guaranteed wiped clean.

Updated November, 2016